THE BEST MOVIES ARE ON HBO

THE PRINCESS BRIDE

A funny, enchanting treat for young and old, and "one of the best movies of the year" (Newsday)! "Once upon a time..." Isn't quite what it used to be. In this bright and breezy tale of flashing swords, sorcerers and true love, directed by Rob Reiner (Stand by Me). Beautiful Buttercup, believing her beloved Westley has been murdered by pirates, is betrothed to villainous Prince Humperdinck. But who is the dashing, mysterious masked man who rescues her from dastardly abductors? (AL, MV)

The critically acclaimed HBO Showcase presents its first comedy—a satirical look at an ambitious young newsman and the fading old pro he's determined to replace. Griffin Dunne plays a slick announcer brought in to lift the sagging ratings of a morning show hosted by veteran newscaster Paul Dooley. Sparks—and laughs—fly when they have to share the spotlight. A poignant, funny look behind the glitz and glamor of the cutthroat world of television. 1:00. Oct. 17, 20, 23, 26, 29 (CC)

WBC CHAMPION
José Luis Ramírez

Scorching, quicksilver action is on the card as two champs from Mexico meet for the unified WBA/WBC title, slugging it out in a scheduled 12-rounder. "Pound for pound, he's the best fighter in the world," some say about undefeated WBA champ Julio César Chávez. Relentless punching and classy defense made him fighter of the year in '87. But José Luis Ramírez is no slouch. A two-time holder of the WBA title, this southpaw knows all the angles.
